

Virginia Willis

ATLANTA, GA

www.virginiawillis.com

VIRGINIA WILLIS
CULINARY ENTERPRISES, INC.

Georgia-born French-trained Chef Virginia Willis has appeared in People magazine, made Mac and Cheese with Julie Chrisley of the hit show Chrisley Knows Best, prepared Lapin Normandie with Julia Child, and was the Kitchen Director for the TV kitchens of Martha Stewart and Bobby Flay -- but it all started in her grandmother's country kitchen. She is a popular Southern food expert, having authored Secrets of the Southern Table: A Food Lover's Tour of the Global South, Lighten Up, Y'all, and Bon Appétit, Y'all, among others. Lighten Up, Y'all received a 2016 James Beard Foundation Award. Virginia is the whole package: authentic, entertaining, engaging, and camera savvy. Fans love her warm, friendly, and down-to-earth style.

AVAILABILITY

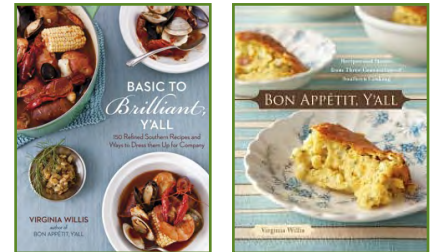

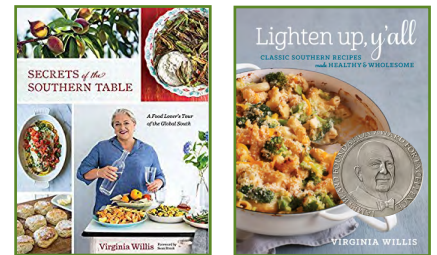

- Product Endorsement
- Brand Ambassador
- Speaking Engagements
- Scripted/Reality Television
- Hosting: Live, TV, Radio
- SMT or RMT
- Demonstrations
- Lectures/Presentations
- Interviews
- Sponsored Conference Representation
- Recipe Development
- Sponsored Blog Posts
- Social Media Campaigns
- Food Photography
- Editor
- Co-author
- Ghost Writing

STATS

(AS OF 1/9/2019)

Average unique
monthly visitors: +/- 10K
Twitter: 38,100 Followers
Facebook: 35,000 Followers
Instagram: 13,600 Followers

COOKBOOKS

Seen In

FamilyFun

HouseBeautiful

COOKING CHANNEL

SAVEUR

EatingWell

MARTHA STEWART LIVING

FOX & friends

Contact Jaimee Constantine
413-247-9325
Jaimee@lisaekus.com

Southern Living

The New York Times

The Washington Post